PARISA KHOSRAVI – 2018 Keynote Speaker

Parisa Khosravi is a keynote speaker, a strategic advisor and a multi-award-winning veteran journalist and news executive. With over three decades of experience on the global stage, Parisa has first-hand experience dealing with world leaders, dignitaries and high-ranking officials across the globe in order to open doors to difficult and dangerous parts of the world where freedom of speech is in no way guaranteed. She speaks on the topic of compassionate leadership to audiences across private and public sectors. Parisa’s motto is “You never know what is inside someone until you give them a chance.” Parisa is also an advocate for individuals with autism and has focused her efforts in helping “silent champions” like her son.
